

Just Another Summer
Moneybrother

Chorus:

A D
Now the summer is just another summer
A D
And your lover is just another lover
A D E
I want a hold, a night like that with you again

G Tom brought the stereo and there he goes
Am Connect the cable to the generator and you know
C D
The heart, the beat, the night, was all around us

G I move though I normally don t dance much
Am Get close cause girl I want a little touch
C D D
The heart, the beat, the night, was all around us

A We take a walk through the fields to get lonely
D E
And girl our feet got wet from the morning dew

A I remember how you pulled up to me
D E
And I remember the first kiss i gave to you"

D E D E
In oh so many ways, I still look back on those days

Chorus

G These days you re weary baby,
Am Get home from work, girl, finding you
C D
All dressed up in our bed fast asleep

G I turn the lights down and I get your shirt off
Am You mumble something baby, I don t get a word though
C D D
Bout the heart, the beat, the night that s all around us

A You ll get up early baby, you better sleep tight
D E
I sit right down and put the TV on

A I can feel my mind begin to slip, right

D E
Back to the long hot night were we belong

D E D E
In oh so many ways, I still look back on those days

Chorus A A D C#m Bm (3x) E D C#m Bm

D E D E
In oh so many ways, I still look back on those days

A D
Now the summer is just another summer

A D
And your lover is just another lover

A D
Nor the heart, nor the beat, nor the night

A D
They ain't around here baby something aint right

A D
Cause the summer is just another summer

A D
And your lover is just another lover

A D E A D C#m Bm A
Now can I hold a night like that with you again
