The road to happiness is paved with heartache and stone, heartache and stone.

In days gone by, cares fallin due

Spirits running high, skys clear and blue,

Wish I could turn, life s cares to gold

The road to happiness is paved with heartache and stone, heartache and stone.

My time is o er and I fall in bed,

Hope I don t regret how time was spent,

I could never find that poit of gold,

The road to happiness is paved with heartache and stone, heartache and stone.

Not sure if this is 100% correct, (corrections welcome), it s how I play it
