Yes. We ll drive up to the forest and wait til the moon is up above and we ll smear mud and pomegranate seeds on our faces, build a giant fire and wait for the sun to put it out. We ll be fed and nurtured back to health by out surrogate ample parents. You ll eat variants from the bushes. I ll learn to fly and you ll learn to fish and I ll fly down to the river to join you...and when we re strong and healthy and ready we ll return to the human world with new skills and a new perspective. We ll be free. Yours, always.
