

Six String Wooden Friend
Monte Montgomery

G Bb F

G

Here we are once again
My six string wooden friend.

Bb F G

Youâ€™re everything that Iâ€™m all about.

G

Youâ€™ve been battered and abused
Youâ€™ve had to pay so many dues.

Bb F G

Iâ€™m half a man when I put you down.

Bb F

So letâ€™s play another song.

C G

Letâ€™s drag it on too long.

D A E

And bring a tear again to my eye.

Bb F

You canâ€™t make me want to stop.

C G

Youâ€™re the only friend Iâ€™ve got.

D A E

And youâ€™ll never live to hear me say, goodbye.

Iâ€™ve never heard you shy away
From anything I want to play.
Your honest always rings true.
Through you, you amplify my soul.
You do, by giving rock and roll
A melody that I can sing to.

I know that Iâ€™ve been rough on you.
Iâ€™ve beaten you so out of tune
That in return you make my fingers bleed.
So before I lay you down to rest
You prove that you are the very best
By bringing out the very best in me.

So letâ€™s play another song.
Letâ€™s drag it on too long.
And bring a tear again to my eye.
You canâ€™t make me want to stop.
Youâ€™re the only friend Iâ€™ve got.
And youâ€™ll never live to hear me say, goodbye.

Here we are once again. My six string wooden friend.
Youâ€™re everything that Iâ€™m all about.
