

Thank You
Morgan

Thinking about the light that give us the sky
Touching the stars imagining I can fly
I m feeling?so fine but?wondering why
Must be you are no?longer by my side
And I m glad, I m so cheerful to be far from that

Feeling the breeze so fresh in my face
Touching the beach sand with my two hands
I can see the power of the waves
And then I become a saltwater fish
Suddenly the mountains look so great
Suddenly it s good to feel I m free
What the hell is happening here?
It must be you are not here with me

I m so glad, I m so cheerful to be far from that
I m so glad, I m so cheerful to be far from that

And I want to thank you cause you let me go
I m so thankful cause you let me go
Because at the end it was all wrong
But then you came and let me go
And I want to thank you
