

The Child
Morgan

E B
You look so quiet, after all I wish I could be too
E B
You have forgotten every tear that I ve cried for you
E G#m
You never taught me not to give up
B E
You never taught me what is fair
B
When I was scared

E
You took it all for granted
B
Everything you had
E
You thought that you were lucky
B
But the luck is not enough
E G#m
You never thought about the future
B E
And now it s late to remember the past
B
It happened so fast

E G#m
Cause I am the child
B
I am the child
E G#m
Cause I am the child
B
I am the child

E G#m
Tell me that I m gonna make it
B E
That when I get there I m gonna be ready
B
Don t try to hide, tell me it s all right
F# B
That everything is fine cause I am the child

E B
You used to fear the consequence of being yourself
E B
You didn't want to change and now it's all a shame
E G#m B
You blamed everyone for your mess and now we all feel this bitterness
E B
Well now I know it's not fair

E G#m
I am a child
B
I am the child
E G#m
I am the child
B
I am the child

E G#m
Tell me that I'm gonna make it
B E
That when I get there I'm gonna be ready
B
Don't try to hide, tell me it's all right
F# B
That everything is fine cause I am the child
