

No Distance

Morning Teleportation

[Intro]

A D E (x4)

[Verse 1]

A                      D                      E        A D        E
I can fall in love with you again and again
There's no distance that we can't mend

[Chorus]

D            A            G            F#m
And all of my favorite memories are with you
          B                                    E
And there's nobody in this God almighty world I'd rather spend time with than you

A            D            E            A D        E
You could throw me in a ditch on a roadside bend
But there's no bruises that I couldn't mend

[Chorus]

D            A            G            F#m
Cause all of my favorite memories are with you
          B                                    E
And there's nobody in this God almighty world I'd rather spend time with
than you

[Instrumental]

A D E (x2)

[Verse 3]

B                      E                      F#        B E        F#
I can fall in love with you again and again
B                      E                      F#            B            E        F#
There's no distance that we can't mend

[Chorus]

E            B            A            G#m
And all of my favorite memories are with you
          C#                                    F#
And there's nobody in this God almighty world I'd rather spend time with
than you
