C#m                    E    C#m                    F#
 Sorries pour out of you, all wide-eyed simple smiles
 C#m                    G# A                    E                    F#                    G#
 Certain to see you through, like a QC full of fake humility

                  A                    C#m D# E F#
 you say: Oh, please forgive...
 E                    F#                    G#
 you say: Oh, live and let live...
 B                    E                    B                    C#m D# E F#
 ...but sorry doesn t help us, and sorry will not save us
 B                    C#m                    F#                    A                    G#
 ...and sorry will not bring my teen years back to me...any time soon

C#m                    E    C#m                    F#
 Forced back it springs right out, seasoned you have no doubts
 C#m                    G# A you lied about the lies that you told

                  E                    F#                    G#
 which is the full extent of what being you is all about

                  A                    C#m D# E F#
 you say: Oh, please forgive...
 E                    F#                    G#
 you say: Oh, live and let live...

B                    E
 but sorry doesn t help us

B                    C#m D# E F#
 oh sorry will not save us

B                    C#m                    F#                    A                    G#
 oh sorry will not bring my love into my arms...as far as I know
