

The Never Played Symphonies
Morrissey

Verse 1:

C

Reflecting from my deathbed

F

I m balancing life s riches against the ditches

Fm

C

and the flat gray years in between

G

All I can see are the never-laid

C

That s the never-played symphonies

Verse 2:

C

I can t see those who tried to love me

All those who felt they understood me

C

and I can t see those who very patiently put up with me

G

All I can see are the never-laid

C

Or the never-played symphonies

C -> C7

Chorus:

F

G

You were one, you meant to be one

E

and you jumped into my face and laughed

Am

F

G

and kissed me on the cheek and then were gone forever

C

...not quite

Verse 3:

C

Black sky in the daytime

and I don t much mind dying

C

When there is nothing left to care for anymore

G

C

Just the never-laid, the never-played symphonies

Chorus:

F

G

You were one, you knew you were one

E

and you slipped right thru my fingers

Am

F

No not literally but metaphorically

C

and now you re all I see as the light fades
