And the left side s all upset

A

Because the right side wants a summer home

and knows we can t afford it

E

I try to mediate between

This constant tug-o-war machine

A

But wind up in a never ending game of telephone

E

There s so much going on

And I just need seven minutes to calm myself back down

Now I forgot where I was

Sentences and every island of words

A

Everything I ever thought I that I knew

E (let ring)

This is where I run out of words

E (let ring)

That describe how I'm so damn hurt

E (let ring)

This is where I fumble and fold

A (let ring)

And take what I'm told

Chorus:

D

What's going on, is this where I belong tonight?
