Capo 4

Е

Hello there, how you doin ?

Α

I ve got all these thoughts just floating through my brain

They bump and they collide and cause a flurry of confusion

Α

And it s getting on my nerves

Е

I try to hold myself together

Α

fighting off this mental weather when I can (sometimes I do)

Е

But this shitstorm s never ending

Α

And the atmospheric pressure s calling for rain

Α

This is what I ve got going on

D

This is where I belong tonight

Interlude part::: E A

E

It s chaos in the courthouse

And the left side s all upset

Α

Because the right side wants a summer home and knows we can t afford it

Ε

I try to mediate between

This constant tug-o-war machine

Α

But wind up in a never ending game of telephone

E

There s so much going on

Α

And I just need seven minutes to calm myself back down

Now I forgot where I was
Was it me we were talking about?
This is what I feared from the start
I keep falling apart
What s going on, is this where I belong tonight?
(What s going on tonight)
What s going on, is this where I belong tonight?
(What s going on)
(Can t stand) I can t stand the thought of losing
Sentences and every island of words
(Can t stand) I can t stand the thought of losing
Everything I ever thought I that I knew
E (let ring)
This is where I run out of words
          E (let ring)
That describe how I m so damn hurt
       E (let ring)
This is where I fumble and fold
A (let ring)
And take what I m told
Chorus:
What s going on, is this where I belong tonight?
(What s going on tonight)
What s going on, is this where I belong tonight?
(What s going on)
(Can t stand) I can t stand the thought of losing
Sentences and every island of words
(Can t stand) I can t stand the thought of losing
Everything I ever thought I that I knew
