VERSE1

A	D
I scream at you for sharing
A	D
n I curse you just for caring
A	Bm E
I hate the clothes you re wearing, they re so pretty
A	D
n I tell to not to see me
A	D
n I tell you not to feel me
A	Bm E
n I make your life a drag, it s such a pity

n I watch your warm glow palin
n I watch your sparkle fadin
As you realise you re failin , cos you re so good
Now I don t mean to upset you
But there s so much crime to get through If only I could make it easier, then I would

CHORUS

A D
Oh I wish I was your mother
A D
I wish I d been your father
A Bm
n then I would have seen you
D E
Would have been you as a child
A D
Played houses with your sisters
A D
And wrestled with all your brothers
A
And then who knows
Bm D E
I might have felt a family for a while

VERSE2 (SAME CHORDS AS VERSE1)

It s no use me pretendin
You give and I do the spendin
Is there a happy ending, I don t think so
Cos even if we make it
I ll be too far out to take it
You ll have to try and shake it from my head

CHORUS

Ooooooh I wish I was your mother
I wish I d been your father
n then I would have seen you
Would have been you as a child
Played houses with your sister
And wrestled with all your brothers
And then who knows
I might have felt a family for a while
