Now where did you get that hat?
Your religion should/would be proud of that
You can stand it on high like a flag in the sky
While your pilgrims all got stoned on that
We ll share a thousand mirrors
And a beautiful view
And everybody talking about you

Where did you get those clothes?
Off a streetcar I suppose
You gotta be cool to look like a fool
You ain t exactly smelling like a rose
And everybody s asking everybody out there
Find Out (uh..?)

Where do you all come from?
Where do you all come from?
Thank you for reason Ralph J. Gleason
For you I ll sing my song
Now the revolution s coming and I just can t wait
Excuse me, but I m too tired and it s late
