

If We Knew
Mount Eerie

Dm Am
We would not be so scared of losing hair and slowing down
G Am
If we knew that our hearts are not aging
G Am
Our little hearts are born already ancient

Dm Am
We would not be so scared to say I do and settle down
G Am
If we knew that our hearts never go dating
G Am
They stay at home for us patiently waiting

Dm Am
We would not be so scared of meeting love and lying down
G Am
If we knew that mountains would be unveiling

G Am
(humm)

Dm Am
We would not be so scared of being swallowed by the ground
G Am
If we knew that greater bodies still are waiting
G Am
Dotted lines in the air tomorrow morning
