

Colorblind Movements

[Intro]

G Em C x2

[Verse 1]

Em

Breathe in

Em

Run fingers over scarred skin

C

Let the guilt rain down all over me

C

Try to justify my hypocrisy

Em

And breathe out

Em

Watch the words as they fall from your mouth

G

C

They sound pretty sharp, and they probably sting

C

About how I've been distant lately

C

It's quiet now and you're waiting on me

Em

Could you repeat yourself? I wasn't listening

[Chorus]

Em

G

C

Save yourself, I'm not worth the time

Em

C

This failure is built deep into my design

C

Em

Is there something wrong with me?

C

This doubt is deafening

Em

G

C

Cause you were gold but I'm colorblind

[Instrumental] x2

Em G C

[Verse 2]

Em

Find a reason

Am

Is it the change of season?

C

Maybe it's just a color I can't see

Or maybe it s not meant for me

Em

Is it all of the above?

G

See, that s the funny thing about love

C

It s never been a friend to me

C

Just an artificial enemy

C

I ve known its face

G

But only watched it leave

[Chorus]

Em

G

C

Save yourself, I m not worth the time

Em

C

This failure is built deep into my design

Em

Is there something wrong with me?

G

C

This doubt is deafening

Em

G

C

Cause you were gold but I m colorblind

[Instrumental]

Em G C

[Bridge]

Em

G

C

And this complacency just seems to get the best of me

G

Em

C

As I wander aimlessly back to everything I left behind

G

Em

C

A new face, a different story, the same mess of me

G

C

And I never learn my lesson cause I m blind

[Chorus]

Em

G

C

Save yourself, I m not worth the time

Em

C

This failure is built deep into my design

Em

Is there something wrong with me?

C

This doubt is deafening

Em

G

C

Cause you were gold but I m colorblind

[Outro]

Em G C
