

The Cascade Moving Mountains

Beautifully atmospheric song by an incredible, underrated band. Echoes, delays, reverberations, and other background noises made it somewhat difficult to write out.

Keep in mind this is just a basic chord tab with a few fills just for fun. The chords are all correct but if you have anything better for the breakdown please let me know.

I believe it s played in Drop D or D standard, but this works well if you don t accentuate the higher strings.

Cheers:)
