Ditmas
Mumford & Sons
     Αm
And in time
As one reminds the other of the past
                   C G/B Am
A life lived much too fast to hold onto
       F C
How am I losing you?
       Am
A broken house
Another dry month waiting for the rain
                   G/B Am
And I had been resisting this decay
              F
I thought you d do the same
               F C
But this is all I ever was
                 F C
And this is all you came across those years ago
Now you go too far
                               C
Don t tell me that I ve changed because that s not the truth
         C G
And now I m losing you
          Αm
Fragile sound
The world outside just watches as we crawl
       C G/B
Crawl towards a life of fragile lines
And wasted time
       Am
And so I cry
As I hold you for the last time in this life
                 С
                         G/B
This life I tried so hard to give to you
What would you have me do?
```

But this is all I ever was

```
C
And this is all you came across those years ago
      F
Now you go too far
                               С
Don t tell me that I ve changed because that s not the truth
       C G
And now I m losing you
              Am
                     F
Where I used to end was where you start
               C
You were the only one
                 Am
                      F
And now I see your eyes move too fast
        F C
   Am
You were the only one
       Am
Careful hands
And wandering without that much to say
        C G/B Am
Your words are empty as the bed we made
       F
Is there another way?
                F
Oh love, is there another way?
But this is all I ever was
                      C
And this is all you came across those years ago
      F C
Now you go too far
                               C
Don t tell me that I ve changed because that s not the truth
         C G
And now I m losing you
   F C G
And now I m losing you
Outro (4x)
Am F C
