this ain t no sham

i am what i am

F C
though i may speak
Am C
some tongue of old
F C G C
or even spit out some holy word
F C
i have no strength
Am C
from which to speak
F C G C
when you sit me down, and see i m weak

F C
we will run and scream
F Am
you will dance with me
F C
they ll fulfill our dreams
G
and we ll be free

F C
and we will be who we are
F Am
and they ll heal our scars
C G sadness will be far away

F C
So as we walked
F Am
through fields of green
F C G C
as the fairest sun i d ever seen
F C
and i was broke
F Am
i was on my knees
F C G C
but you said yes as i said please

F C
this ain t no sham

F C
i am what i am

F C
i leave no ties
F C
for a cynics mind

F C
we will run and scream
F Am
you will dance with me
F C
they ll fulfill our dreams
G
and we ll be free

F C
F Am
and they ll heal our scars
C G sadness will be far away

Am F G
do not let my fickle flesh go to waste
Am F G
as it keeps my heart and soul in it s place
Am F G
and i will love with urgency but not with haste
