B   D#m   C#
   But no flame burns forever, oh no
                                  B
You and I both know this all too well
                D#m   C#
And most don t even last the night
No they don t, they say they don t

 Verso 2:
F#   A#m
Oh babe, I ve never been so lost

I wanna hear you laugh

Just one last time
    F#   A#m
But oh babe, I really wish you would not cry
                         D#m
I only ever told you one lie
                              A#m
When it could have been a thousand
It might as well have been a thousand

But I was swallowed up by doubt
G#m                       D#m
   If only things were black and white
                       F#
Cause I just want to hold you tight
