

Where Are You Now
Mumford & Sons

Intro: F C Am C

F C Am C
It came to the end it seems you had heard
F C
Cause we walked the city streets,
Am C
You never said a word

F C
When we finally sat down,
Am C
Your eyes were full of spite
F C
I was desperate, I was weak,
Am C
I could not put up a fight

F C
Where are you now?
Am C
Where are you now?
F C
Do you ever think of me
Am C
In the quiet, in the crowd?

F C
You were strangely less than pain
Am C
Than you were cold
F C
Triumphant in your mind
Am C
Of the logic that you hold.

F C
You said no one would ever know
Am C
The love that we had shared
F C
As I took my leave to go
Am C
It was clear that you didn't care.

F C

Where are you now?

Am C

Where are you now?

F C

Do you ever think of me

Am C

In the quiet, in the crowd?

F C

Where are you now?

Am C

Where are you now?

F C

Do you ever think of me

Am C

In the quiet, in the crowd?

F C

And I hear of your coming

Am C

and your going in the town.

F C

I hear stories of your smile,

Am C

I hear stories of your frown.

F C

You said no one would ever know

Am C

The love that we had shared

F C

As I took my leave to go

Am C

It was clear that you didn't care.

F C

Where are you now?

Am C

Where are you now?

F C

Do you ever think of me

Am C

In the quiet, in the crowd?

F C

Where are you now?

Am C

Where are you now?

F C

Do you ever think of me

Am C

In the quiet, in the crowd?

F                    C
Where are you now?

Am                    C
Where are you now?

F                    C
Do you ever think of me

Am                    C
In the quiet, in the crowd?