Mumford & Sons

Am

And in time

F C

As one reminds the other of the past

F C G/B Am

A life lived much too fast to hold onto

F C

How am I losing you?

Am

A broken house

F C

Another dry month waiting for the rain

F C G/B Am

And I had been resisting this decay

F C

I thought you'd do the same

F C

But this is all I ever was

F C G C

And this is all you came across those years ago

F C

Now you go too far

F C G C

Don't tell me that I've changed because that's not the truth

F C G

And now I'm losing you

Am

Fragile sound

F C

The world outside just watches as we crawl

F C G/B Am

Crawl towards a life of fragile lines

F C

And wasted time

Am

And so I cry

F C

As I hold you for the last time in this life

F C G/B Am

This life I tried so hard to give to you

F C

What would you have me do?

F C

But this is all I ever was

And this is all you came across those years ago

Now you go too far

Don't tell me that I've changed because that's not the truth

And now I'm losing you

Where I used to end was where you start

You were the only one

And now I see your eyes move too fast

You were the only one

Careful hands

And wandering without that much to say

Your words are empty as the bed we made

Is there another way?

Oh love, is there another way?

But this is all I ever was

And this is all you came across those years ago

Now you go too far

Don't tell me that I've changed because that's not the truth

And now I'm losing you

And now I'm losing you
