For Those Below
Mumford & Sons
[Intro]
   D7
          G
                Gm
   Em A7 D
[Verse]
D Em
           Bm7 A7
Helpless, she lies across the stairs
              Em
                    Bm7 A7
Haunting your days, consuming your prayers
              Em
                              Bm7
                                         A7
There will be healing, but don t force this girl to stand
                     Em
                                         Bm7
                                                    Α7
As she s counting the ceilings, with pale voice and trembling hands
[Chorus]
                     A7
Em
                              D
You told me life was long, but now that it s gone,
                    Em
                               F#m
You find yourself on top, as the leader of a flock
Α7
                               D D7 G Gm D
Called to be a rock for those below
[Verse]
                      Bm7
         Em
                                    A7
Whispered notes from the piano in the corner of the room
                        Bm7
                                             A7
Hold your throat, is that healing that you re hearing in her tune?
    Em
                 Bm7
                             A7
Wanting change, but loving her just as she lies
                              Bm7
                   Em
Is the burden of the man who s built his life on love
[Chorus]
Em
                              D
You told me life was long, but now that it s gone,
                   Em
                               F#m
You find yourself on top, as the leader of a flock
Α7
                                   D7 G Gm D
Called to be a rock for those below
[Verse]
Em7
                      A7
I ll be locked up and stored
In a lavender ward
Em7
                     A7

Cause my mind is just like hers,

Em7 A7
just as broken, just as crippled, just as burned

D Em F#m G

Called to be a rock for those below
