[Intro]
D

[Verse]
D
 Though I may speak some tongue of old,
       D/G                  D                  A      D
 Or even spit out some holy word,
D
 I have no strength with which to speak
                   D/G          D                  A                  D
 When you sit me down and see Iâ€™m weak.

[Chorus]
(Melody Line)
           G          D
 We will run and scream,
           G          D
 You will dance with me,
           G          D                                  A
 Weâ€™ll fulfill our dreams, and weâ€™ll be free.

[Verse]

          G          D
We will run and scream,
          G          D
You will dance with me,
          G          D                  A
Weâ€™ll fulfill our dreams, and weâ€™ll be free.
          G          D
We will be who we are,
          G          D
And theyâ€™ll heal our scars;
          G          D          A
Sadness will be far away.

[Verse]

(Melody Line x 2)

D
So I had done wrong but you put me right.
  D/G      D                  A      D
My judgment burned in the black of night.
D
When I give less than I take
  D/G      D                  A      D
It is my fault, my own mistake.

[Chorus]

          G          D
We will run and scream,
          G          D
You will dance with me,
          G          D                  A
We ll fulfill our dreams, and weâ€™ll be free.
          G          D
We will be who we are,
          G          D
And theyâ€™ll heal our scars;
          G          D          A
Sadness will be far away.
