Love Astronaut Murder Mystery

I ve been searching for you; have you been searching for me? I ve been running around and now I m down on my knees. I go looking abroad; I ve been sailing the seas. I go looking for love, but is it looking for me? I m the captain of a ship or an astronaut in space Traveling all round the world and searching for a pretty face. I ve been lookin on high, checkin below the lows But the only thing I found is myself still alone. C I ve been searching for you; have you been searching for me? I ve been running around and now I m down on my knees. I go looking abroad; I ve been sailing the seas. I go looking for love, but is it looking for me? But every time I find somebody who looks like she may be that one: The kind of woman who inspires a man to stop his traveling around. C Ba ba, ba ba ba I m the captain of a ship or an astronaut in space Traveling all round the world and searching for a pretty face.

But the only thing I found is myself still alone.

Am F C G

But every time I find somebody who looks like she may be that one:

Am F C G

The kind of woman who inspires a man to stop his traveling around.

C F C

I ve been searching for you; have you been searching for me?

G C

I ve been running around and now I m down on my knees.

F C

I go looking abroad; I ve been sailing the seas.

G C

I go looking for love, but is it looking for me?

G C

I go looking for love, but is it looking for me?

I ve been lookin on high, checkin below the lows

I go looking for love, for love, but is it looking for me?