[Intro] G G7M G7 C

[1ª Parte]

G G7M

My skin is a story

G7 C

With marks and lines, it makes me weary

G G7M

My face is like a galaxy

G7 C

With spotty freckle stars and no sense of gravity

G

But even with the good

G7M

The bad feels so much stronger

G7

My inner demons, they always win

C

And in my mind they saunter

G

So many things that I've come to hate

G7M

They line my body and caress my face

G7

I feel so frail and empty too

C

Like a china tea cup with dried out glue

[Refrão]

G G7M

I am made of porcelain

G7 C

I'm cracking now and then, it wears me down

G G7M

And I am made of porcelain

G7

I look okay but I am breaking down

C

Over and over again

Cm

Oh, over and over again

[2ª Parte]

G

G7M

Stretches and patches corrupt my flesh

G7 C

Slowly eating away any confidence that s left

G

And I really wish I wouldn t let

G7M

My appearance dictate how much I fret

G7 C

Because they say what s inside is what really matters

G

But I really can t seem to ignore

G7M

The parts of me that I abhor

G7 C

It makes me feel like I am weak and battered

[Refrão]
