

Temporary Nothing

mxmtoon

E How does it feel to feel nothing at all? I wonder
A

E I imagine it s grey, like the world has suddenly lost its color
A

E But I d be lying if I said I hadn t wished to feel nothing at times
A

To feel nothing
E

Cause feelings are painful and I don t want to suffer through
A

All those moments without you, when I lost you
E

Anger and sadness, they are always there
A

They re always pretty rough to cope with
E

Feelings, oh, feelings, you tear me apart
A

And I wish I could start again
E

But I know that there s the other side
A

The one that I can t see right now but I ll find it
E A

And when I do, I ll be so better for the rest
A

So much better in my chest

Can you feel it? Can you feel it?
E A

And when you do, you ll be so happy that you felt
A

So happy that you dealt with it, yeah, you dealt with it
E

Feelings, oh, feelings, you tear me apart
A

And I wish I could start again, again
E

But I know that there s the other side
A

The one that I can t see right now but I ll find it
E

And I used to think that being numb would ease the pain
A

But I was wrong, I was so wrong
E

It s just better to feel and know you re alive

A

While reminding yourself that it s temporary

E

Oh, it won t last for long
