

Running out of time, running out of time, out of my mind,
and I canâ€™t find a way to tell you.
Running out of time, running out of time, out of my mind,
And I cant find a way to tell you.

Break:

C#m     A           H
When time     stands so still,
                  E
this so called life has lost its thrill.
          A         H
Take me home.
          E
Take me home.

Running out of time, running out of time, out of my mind,
and I canâ€™t find a way to tell you.
Running out of time, running out of time, out of my mind,
And I cant find a way to tell you.

Not a whole lot matters,
when your whole world shatters,
Not a whole lot matters.
