You can t hide, oh no, from the way I feel

Turn my head

Into sound

I don t know when I lay down on the ground

You will find the __ __ hurts to love

Never cared, and the world turned hearts to love

We will see, oh now, in a day or two

You will wait

See me go

I don t care, when you re head turned __ _ __

You will wait, when I turn my eyes around

Overhead when I hold you next to me

Overhead, to know the way I see

Close my eyes

Feel me now

I don t know, maybe you could not hurt me now

Here alone, when I feel down too

Over there, when I await true love for you

You can hide, oh now, the way I do

You can see, oh now, oh the way I do
