Riff 1: Intro

Riff 2

It s the tearing sound of love-notes
Casting out the gray stained windows
And the view outside is sterile
But I m only two cubes down
I ll photocopy all the things that we could be
If you took the time to notice me
But you can t now, I don t blame you

B5

And it s not your fault that no one ever does

Bb5

But you don t work here anymore
B5 Bb5 G#5 Riff 3

Its just a vacant 3 by 4

B5 Bb5

And they might fill your place
B5 C#5 D#5 Riff 3

A temporary stand-in for your face

B5 Bb5

It happens all the time
B5 Bb5 G#5 Riff 3

And I can t help but think I ll die alone

Riff 2

Riff 2

So I ll spend my time with strangers
A condition that is terminal
In this water-cooler romance
And its coming to a close
We could be in the park and dancing by a tree
Kicking over blades we see
Or a dark beach with a black view B5
As pin-pricks in the velvet catch our fall

Bb5

But you don t work here anymore
B5 Bb5 G#5 Riff 3

Its just a vacant 3 by 4

B5 Bb5

And they might fill your place

B5 C#5 D#5 Riff 3

A temporary stand-in for your face

B5 Bb5

It happens all the time

B5 Bb5 G#5 Riff 3

And I can t help but think I ll die alone

B5 F#5 G#5

I know you don t work here anymore [x6]

(B5 F#5 G#5)

Sometimes I think I ll die alone, sometimes I think

I ll die alone

Sometimes I think I ll die alone, live and breathe and die alone

Sometimes I think I ll die alone, sometimes I think

I ll die alone

Sometimes I think I ll die alone, I d think I d love to die alone

Base do Riff 4:(E5 B5 F#5 G#5)

Riff 4

I think I d love to die alone (many times)
