Capo 3

C2- 000230

Em
Am I a barren temple left for newer ways
Am C
Of speaking mysteries my veils cannot contain
Em
Should I prepare to winter spend again
Am C Am-single strum
Of silent centuries speech for only certain men

Em
What if I wait to find You ve gone
Am
What if Your presence was withdrawn
Em
And I was mistaken all along
Am
To think that I could become your home
Em Am C2 C
It d be no surprise to finally know

Em Am C2 C
I am truly alone
Em Am
D-single strum
Come death, but likely sooner I ll be alone

Em Am D-single strum
You moved your temple
Em Am D-single strum
inside our bones and it s
Em Am D-single strum
So hard to trust that You

won t move again
Em Am
C Am
For all eternity, You stood with Your Father in perfect unity

Em Am
 And when You walked the earth, You only went where He led
C Am
 You only spoke what He said
Em Am
 So for everything You left, and all of the glory You forfeit
Em
 No matter how low You were sent
Am Em Am
C2 C
 You still couldn't know what it's like to be alone

Em Am C2 C
 Disgraced, but You were never alone
Em Am C2 C
 Betrayed, but You were never alone
Em Am C2 C
 Tortured, but still never alone
Em
 And nothing is worse than being alone

Am
 I have been thinking hard about us trading place
Em Am
 Maybe I can wear Your beauty if You put on my shame
Em
 Jesus, I've been trying so hard to look like You
Am
 That I almost missed the worst of what I put You through
Em
 You didn't die for sins, You died covered in them
Am
 A prideful, lying thief, gasping out my final breath

Em Am D-single strum

Em Am D-single strum
 For that one moment
Em Am D-single strum
 You looked just like me
Em Am D-single strum
 Your Father left you
Em Am C2 C
 And You died completely alone

Em Am C2 C
 For me, You were alone
Em
 You couldn't marry so He left You all alone
Am C2 C
 No better promise than sympathy
Em

(You conquered death all alone)

Am C2 C

Cause you know the deepest of all our needs

Never again, never alone

Em Am C2 C C2 (x2)
