D                      A                      F#m                      E
Freedom is an illusion, Generated by your brain
D                      A                      F#m                      E
To deadly cut the words, To ever explain

F#m                      A                      Bm
And love is the taste you get, On the tip of your tongue
F#m                      A                      Bm                      A
Better to have loved and lost than To have lived and never loved anyone

D
I'd stand in the light of fire for you

I'd bend over backwards for you

A
I'd do anything that you want me to do

E
Cause I don't have nothing if I don't have you
My love
E7
And it hurts cause it's true

D                      A                      F#m                      E
Pain is what keeps your eyes, Closing as the night falls
D                      A                      F#m                      E
And is you in your sleep And wakes you when it gets light

F#m                      A                      Bm
And darkness is like a wave, That sweeps you off your feet
F#m                      A                      Bm
With tears that cut like knives, That are running like rivers down your
