Mystery Jets

Bm A Em A
I ve heard there s a place where we go to die
G Bm D G
It s a terribly overrated horse-shit shaped hole in the sky
Bm A Em A
Kick off your heels and come with me tonight
G Em
And we ll pack up your car and we ll board up the house
D G
And we ll die for our country though it never loved us
Em A
And it didn t need us these wonderful wonderful people
D G
We ll redefine love in these papers and cry
G A
So may the bridges we burn light the way
D G
Out of the darkness of where we have been
G A
Though at times it may feel like a lie
D G
We both know nothing is quite as it seems
G A
When the debris comes falling from the sky
Bm
Heaven will still be ours

(same chords)

Load up Old Bill s twelve-gauge and meet me by the lake
There s a place I know where nobody goes down by the old interstate
The future gets shorter the longer we wait
So let s step on the gas and if they come to find us
We ll run to the hills they say hills never loved us
But since we were children these wonderful wonderful people
We ll redefine love on our tombstones and cry

Em A
But someone will get all the glory
Em A
But I ll have yours and you ll have mine, you ll have mine

So may the bridges we burn light the way
Out of the darkness of where we have been
Though at times it may feel like a lie
We both know nothing is quite as it seems
And I know when I look into the deep blue of your eyes

Heaven will still be ours

Bm

We ll be together until hell,

A Em A
Until hell, until hell freezes over

G Bm
Until hell, until hell,

D G
Until hell, freezes over.

Bm A
Together until hell, until hell

Em A
Until hell, freezes over.

G Bm
Until hell, until hell,

D G
Until hell, freezes over.

So may the bridges we burn light the way
Out of the darkness of where we have been
Though at times it may feel like a lie
We both know nothing is quite as it seems
Then when the world is itself about to die
Our story will still play itself on the screens
And all these stars that come falling from the sky
Will always be ours
