

Alhamdulillah

Nader Khan

The whole song follows the same chords used in the first verse. Please comment if there is any mistakes or anything that could improve the tabs/chords!

C Am
at the door step to your abode
C Am
i dismount from the ride i rode F G C G and dragged my guilty feet alhamdulillah the shoes come off as i knock the door eyes down cast upon the floor struggling to repeat alhamdulillah alhamdulillah x 4

waiting for you to let me in i cast a blaming glance within im grateful that I m here alhamdulillah ill knock forever if i must though my knocking hands return to dust every knock with hope and fear alhamdulillah

alhamdulillah x 4

I ve been knocking awhile and I ve grown so old glad im a knocker not a wayward soul but its you that i desire alhamdulillah more than anyone or anything more than heaven and earth and all within more than freedom from the fire alhamdulillah

alhamdulillah x 4

how could i have been so wrong you ve been with me all along on the path and at the door alhamdulillah when i felt numb and raised my hands and prayed again for one more chance when my face was on the floor alhamdulillah

alhamdulillah x 4

now i celebrate life a little more once guilty feet now dance with joy my lord is here with me alhamdulillah i whirl and dance with no restraints no greivence nor complaints the truth has set me free alhamdulillah