

Tambourine-N-Thyme

Nana Grizol

Bb

Jump in to that water, is it cold or is it hot,

Gm

or is it nothing quite worth mentioning at all.

Eb

Hearts they will awaken, to remember fears of breaking

F

but all animals must answer to their call

Bb

It s like how when I try to write a song, sometimes the words just come out wrong,

Gm

but if I never picked the pen up, held inside and never shared

Eb

And oh was that so eloquent, it wasn t really what I meant,

F

at least you got the notion that I care

Eb

F

Gm

And a song well sung is a sung well song so sing.

Eb

Ebm

If nothing else you must remember that you re still breathing

Bb

So we ignore those body parts that get so wet and get so hard,

Gm

and focus on our beating hearts, your arm to hold me here to guard me

Eb

I can sleep alone tonight, I feel weird but that s alright

F

I m learning not to think too much, I turn the lights out and sleep tight

Bb

And if I make a big mistake, if anything well then it wont take forever just to find myself again. In a subjective sense

Gm

Eb

Eb

we ve seen a lot, yeah we make the best of what we ve got all we are is everything and everyone we ve ever been so...

Eb

F

Gm

Tell me not to fall in love with you

Eb

And frankly my friend I think that s the sweetest thing you do

Bb

Summer in my town is nice, my front porch is my paradise

Gm

and I can sit here every night, yes I can watch the world go by,

Eb

and know that I m in motion to occasionally think of you and just hope that you realize that when you sit here by my side

Eb

F

Gm

whatever that implies will be just fine
