

Tambourine-N-Thyme

Nana Grizol

D

Jump in to that water, is it cold or is it hot,

Bm

or is it nothing quite worth mentioning at all.

G

Hearts they will awaken, to remember fears of breaking

A

but all animals must answer to their call

D

It s like how when I try to write a song, sometimes the words just come out wrong,

Bm

but if I never picked the pen up, held inside and never shared

G

And oh was that so eloquent, it wasn t really what I meant,

A

at least you got the notion that I care

G

A

Bm

And a song well sung is a sung well song so sing.

If nothing else you must remember that you re still breathing

D

So we ignore those body parts that get so wet and get so hard,

Bm

and focus on our beating hearts, your arm to hold me here to guard me

G

I can sleep alone tonight, I feel weird but that s alright

A

I m learning not to think too much, I turn the lights out and sleep tight

D

And if I make a big mistake, if anything well then it wont take

Bm

G

forever just to find myself again. In a subjective sense

G

we ve seen a lot, yeah we make the best of what we ve got

A

G

And frankly my friend I think that s the sweetest thing you do

D
Summer in my town is nice, my front porch is my paradise

Bm
and I can sit here every night, yes I can watch the world go by,

G
and know that I m in motion to occasionally think of you

A
and just hope that you realize that when you sit here by my side

G A Bm
whatever that implies will be just fine

G A D A/B G Gm D
My heart beats like a tambourine, it plays along in time.
