Friend out in the Madness
Nanci Griffith

G D C Am
I am not a child, though you treat me as you ve always seen me

C You never saw the changes in a heart grown old and wise D

G D C Am
Hey, it s good to see you smile, it s been so long between the pages

C Wheels out on the highway, seem to laugh between my lines. D

Chorus:

G Do you still want to know D where does the love go when it dies? C

Hey I want you to know

Em	C	Am
love	never	dies
it	is	sheltered
here	very	safe
inside

F and it s left you with a friend out in the madness
C
D

G D
And you say you love me still

C how your soul does change and your heart still ponders Am

C How I could grow fonder of a life out on my own D

G D C Am
I still sing the harmony, I ll have another wine and toast this madness

I ll howl out at your moon on my way home alone

Chorus twice
