| Friend out in the Madness Nanci Griffith | |
| G D C Am I am not a child, though you treat me as you ve always seen me | |
| C You never saw the changes in a heart grown old and wise | |
| G D C Am Hey, it s good to see you smile, it s been so long between the pages | |
| ${f C}$ Wheels out on the highway, seem to laugh between my lines. | |
| Chorus: | |
| G Do you still want to know where does the love go when it dies? | |
| G Hey I want you to know | |
| Em C Am love never dies it is sheltered here very safe inside | |
| F C D and it s left you with a friend out in the madness | |
| | |
| G And you say you love me still | |
| C Am how your soul does change and your heart still ponders | |
| C How I could grow fonder of a life out on my own | |

G D C Am

I still sing the harmony, I ll have another wine and toast this madness

C D

I ll howl out at your moon on my way home alone

Chorus twice
