

Another Stupid Love Song

Natalia Lacunza

C G
I know you won't listen to my words

Em
Cause you don't want to

D
Cause you don't need to

C
You have it all

G
You're in control

E
We still don't know what's going on

D
We could be falling or this could be

G
Just another stupid love song

A
As the clocks keep turning

C
We're still pretending

G
It's all part of the game

A
But tell me what would happen

C
If we saw each other

G
In another life

D
In another place

D Em
Would it hurt?

Maybe not

C
Maybe we would just forget

G
The little pieces that we kept

D
Hiding in our minds

Em
I try to find now where's the line

C

That spares the laws

Of space and time

G

That s filling in this heart of mine

D

That somehow joins the truth of life

G C G C

The truth of life
