Equestrienne - Natalie Merchant
From the album Leave Your Sleep (2010)
Lyrics from a poem by Rachel Field (1894-1942)
Chorded by Leonard

C G
See, they re clearing the sawdust course
Am Em
For the girl in pink on a milk-white horse
C G
See the girl in pink on a milk-white horse
D Em
Cantering over the sawdust course

C G
Spangles twinkle his pale flanks shine
Am Em
Every hair on his tail is fine
C G
See the girl in pink on a milk-white horse
D Em
Cantering over the sawdust course

G D C
While his hoofbeats fall like rain
Em
Over and over and over again

C G D

Am C
Bright as a comet his mane blows free
G D
As she points a toe, bends a knee
Am C
Nothing that moves on land or sea
G D
Will seem more beautiful to me

C G
As a girl in pink on a milk-white horse
D Em
Cantering over the sawdust course

C G
As a girl in pink on a milk-white horse
D Em

Cantering over the sawdust course

C G D Em (2x)

Am C
Bright as a comet his mane blows free

G D
As she points a toe, bends a knee

Am C
Nothing that moves on land or sea

G D
Will seem so beautiful to me

C G
As a girl in pink on a milk-white horse

D Em
Cantering over the sawdust course

C G D Em

C G
As a girl in pink on a milk-white horse
