G C D C G Em

```
          G
Well if no one ever marries me
      C
And I don t see why they should
D
Nurse says I m not pretty
          C               G             Em
And you know I m seldom good, seldom good

          G
Well if no one ever marries me
   C
I shan t mind very much
       D
I ll buy a squirrel in a cage
        C            G
And a little rabbit-hutch

          C
If no one marries me
         Am G     D
If no one marries me
         C
If no one marries me
         Am G     D
If no one marries me
             Em
Well if no one marries me

G
I ll have a cottage near a wood
       C
And a pony all my own
   D
A little lamb quite clean and tame
      C             G
```

That I can take to town

G
When I m really getting old
    C
At twenty-eight or nine
      D
I ll buy myself a little orphan-girl
   C   G
And bring her up as mine

           C
If no one marries me
          Am G   D
If no one marries me
          C
If no one marries me
       Am G   D
No one marries me
               C
Well if no one marries me
Am G   D
Marries me
               C
Well if no one marries me
Am G   D
Marries me
               Em
Well if no one marries me
