

Letter

Natalie Merchant

A D A
If I ever write this letter
A D A
All the pages I could write
F#m B E
But I don't know where to send it
D A E
You have vanished, heaven knows where you are
D A
Heaven only knows.

If I ever write this letter
Bitter words it would contain
Just an unrequired lover
Whishing she had never spoken your name
Had never known your name.

But if I ever write this letter
the truth it would reveal
Knowing you have brought me pleasure
How I often treasure, moments that we knew
The precious, the few.

You can also play it in G(if you have a lower voice):

G C G
G C G
Em A D
C G D
C G
