

Early Spring Till
Nathaniel Rateliff

Artist: Nathaniel Rateliff
Song: Early Spring Till
Album: In Memory of Loss (2010)

Got tired waiting for someone to put up a version of this so decided to give it a go myself.

This is a very basic version based on what he played in Belfast a few months back.

Listen to the song to notice the strumming pattern.

Capo: 2nd fret

Chords:

C - 032010
G - 320003
Am - 002210
Fm7 - 003210 ?

[Intro]

C

[Verse]

C G
I was out there missing steps, when you swung around to me
C G
Best to land, not to crash, pulling out too late
C G
Call on everyone you ever knew, and plead
Fm7 C
Well I ve been the bum who s underfed
Fm7 C
I ve been the one who should ve said
Fm7 C G
Maybe I m wrong and I ve always been that way

[Chorus]

C Am G
Are you tied to your field, wrung out
C Am G
Have you fallen from where glory sprouts
C Am G
Are you cut off in fields and pressed down
C Am G
Like an early spring till that don t come around
C

I think I've been there

Fm7 C

I think I'm waiting too long

Fm7 C

You tried this panting and poured?

Am G

You set a course to cross me out

[Chorus]

C Am G

Are you tired and broken, once so stout

C Am G

Are you full of the feeling, don't doubt it when it's gone

C Am G

I could cut off (this reel?) and leave now

C Am G

I could fill up with air and scream so loud

C

I think I'm going to
