Standing on a corner in downtown L.A.,
C G
waiting for the man to come along.

F
She comes up to me and says, too bad, too sad ,
C G
you know that he s been dead and gone.

C D
L.A. 'lady, kinda shady, she picked him up and took him (home.)

G F
I woke up groggy, my sight was smoggy,
C G
and I knew that it had been blown.

F
Early in the morning, sitting in a hotel,
C G
Moscow s looking fine through the wine.

F
Spaced out I crashed out,
C G
when the K.G.B. came on my line.

C D
It s a cold one, being sent down, it s gotta be fifty be(low).

G F
Mama, here s a postcard to let you know,
C G F C G F C
I m in a saltmine and looking for coal.

ripped off and kicked right out the b.....ed.

G F
Flyin cross the desert from Texas to Tucson,
C G
but we re headed for the southern star.

F
The captain says, it s fine in Havana,
C G
this dude behind me needs a cigar.

C D
He s a big one, he s got a big gun, I guess, we better go a(long).

G F
Mister, we got a gig in Arizona,
C
second billing to the Rolling Stones.
