Version 2 had some things correct, but not much. Before you go on, you must realize the song is at least in drop D tuning, but probably some form of open D. What I am giving is a way to play that song with standard tuning. It may not be perfect, but I think it s close.

Above the key will be the chords, below will be the lyrics that go with the chords. If follow the strum pattern, you ll hit G F# F# D --hopefully you can hear that in the song.

Tuning: Standard

Verse:

Chord progression for the first verse: G, F#, D, G, F#, D. Includes guitar notation with fret numbers and a vertical bar line.

I promised you the world again. Everything within my hands.

Chord progression for the second verse: B, F#, G, F#, A. Includes guitar notation with fret numbers and a vertical bar line.

All the riches one could dream / They will come from me.

Chord progression for the third verse: G, F#, D, G, F#, D. Includes guitar notation with fret numbers and a vertical bar line.

I hope that you could understand / That this is not what I had planned.

	B	F#	G	F#	A
