

Sinner
Neil Finn

SINNER
(Neil Finn/Marius deVries)

NOTES: At first this doesn't seem like a very likely acoustic guitar song, but if you can get two guitarists -- one playing the rhythm chords, and one playing the little riff, you can do a really nice version.

MAIN GUITAR/BASS RIFF UNDERLYING THE SONG:

```

-----| |
-----| |
-----| |
-----| |
--3---3---1--3--1-----| |
-----3--1--| |

```

INTRO: Gm C

Gm C Gm C
See it anyone, got my eyes got my face

Gm C Gm C
sing it everyone, got my nose got my blood

VERSE:

Gm C Gm C
conscience plays upon on me now

Gm C Gm C
safe until my luck runs out

Gm C cuckoos call pendulum swings

Gm C
thought you knew everything

Gm C
lift my hands make the cross

CHORUS:

Gm F
Sinner I have never learned

Gm F
beginner I cannot return

G D#
forever I must walk this earth

C
like some forgotten soldier

VERSE:

These things I should keep to myself
but I feel somehow strangely compelled under moonlight I stood wild and naked
I felt no shame, just my spirit awaken

Gm
Sinner

Seeing everything, got my eyes got my face

VERSE:

Fireball drop from the sky
all my dreams have come to pass
where s my faith, is it lost
I can t see it til I cast it off

CHORUS:

Sinner there is no such thing
beginner I have learned to sing
forever I must walk this earth
like some forgotten soldier

VERSE:

Today I am still disconnected to the face that I saw in the clouds
and the closest I get to contentment
is when all of the barriers come down
(Sinner)
these things I should keep to myself
but I feel somehow strangely compelled
and the closest I get to contentment
is when all of the barriers come down

RIDE OUT: Gm C

[c] 1997 by Roundhead Music, administered by Wixen Music Publishing
(BMI)/Chrysalis Music Ltd. All rights in the US and Canada
administered by Chrysalis Music (ASCAP)

(Transcription by Marck Bailey)