Elevenes

by Neil Halstead

Standard tuning, (capo 2nd fret)

(intro)

C Am Em F C (2X)

C Am Em F G G

C

Youâ€™re drinking on your own,

Am Em

Youâ€™re running for the coast,

F C

youâ€™re running from those ghosts,

Am Em

Running away girl,

Am Em G

One line to your bus

C

Iâ€™ll see you to the stars

Am Em

And now youâ€™ve got the chance

F C

you might as well just dance

Am Em Am Em G G

Gold skies and frozen wings and poetry and things

C

I think youâ€™re doing fine

Am Em

Donâ€™t offer me a line

F

C

I only want a cup of tea

Am Em Am Em G G

Goldman just won the tie I really canâ€™t stay long

C

I love the way youâ€™re shaped,

Am Em

But youâ€™ve lost a little weight,

F C

Yeah youâ€™ve lost a little weight

Am Em

Iâ€™ll see you tomorrow

Am Em G G

Same time, same place

C

Motherâ€™s little helper

Am Em

is running for her shelter

F C

And no one's to know

Am Em

Love dead as doornails

Am Em G G

They shouldn't understand

C Am Em F

At least that's what they said

C Am Em F

She's gone away for good

C Am Em F

She's really made a meal

C

And blown a record deal

Am F

She's blown a record deal

C Am F

She's blown a record deal

G G

What are we to do?

C Am Em

See you tomorrow,

Am Em G

Same time same place

C Am Em

See you tomorrow

Am Em G

Same time same place

C Am Em

I'll see you tomorrow

Am Em G

Same time same place

C Am Em

I'll see you tomorrow

Am Em G

Same time same place
