B F#m7 E
 If I could hold on to just one thought for long enough to know
 B F#m7 E
 Why my mind is moving so fast and the conversation is slow
 A E
 Burn off all the fog and let the sun through to the snow
 B
 Let me see your face again
 A E /
 before I have to go.

B F#m7 E
 I have seen you in the movies and in those magazines at night
 B F#m7 E
 I saw you on the barstool when you held that glass so tight
 A E
 And I saw you in my nightmares, but I ll see you in my dreams
 B

And I might live a thousand years before

A E /

I know what that means

B	F#m7	E
Once there was a friend of mine who died a thousand deaths
B	F#m7	E
His life was filled with parasites and countless idle threats
A		E
He trusted in a woman and on her he made his bets
