C#	G#m7	F#
----	------	----

If I could hold on to just one thought for long enough to know

C#	G#m7	F#
----	------	----

Why my mind is moving so fast and the conversation is slow

B		F#
---	--	----

Burn off all the fog and let the sun through to the snow

C#

Let me see your face again

B	F#	/
---	----	---

before I have to go.

C#	G#m7	F#
----	------	----

I have seen you in the movies and in those magazines at night

C#	G#m7	F#
----	------	----

I saw you on the barstool when you held that glass so tight

B		F#
---	--	----

And I saw you in my nightmares, but I ll see you in my dreams

C#

And I might live a thousand years before

B F# /

I know what that means

C# G#m7 F#
Once there was a friend of mine who died a thousand deaths
C# G#m7 F#
His life was filled with parasites and countless idle threats

B F#
He trusted in a woman and on her he made his bets

C#
Once there was a friend of mine

B F# /
who died a thousand deaths
