

Bound For Glory
Neil Young

(intro strummin) F

Out on the Trans-Canada highway there was a girl hitchhikin with a dog Bb
C fireflies buzzin round her head
F like candles in a fog

He was three miles down the road tryin to stay up but he knew that he couldn t Bb
C
she was looking for a ride through the night
F
but out there who wouldn t

There were bound for glory, bound for livin on the edge Gm
C
they were bound for each other
F
like two comets headin for a bed

She had a new way of livin, new way of lookin at life Gm
C
he had an 84 International and two kids
Bb F
he left back home with his wife

(waylon sings-same chords)

He was tired of writing letters to himself and living in the dark She was open to suggestions and some say she had a broken heart He had everything he wanted till it all turned out to be a job One fallen asleep trucker and a girl hitchhikin with a dog

(same as previous chorus)

There were bound for glory, bound for livin on the edge
they were bound for each other,
like two comets headin for a bed
She had a new way of livin, new way of lookin at life

he had an 84 International and two kids
he left back home with his wife

(Go up a full step to G)

G
Out on the Trans-Canada highway
C
the sun cam climbin up the cab
D
by the time it hit the window
G
they were waking up from what little sleep they had When that heat hit the blankets
C
They were looking for love at second sight
D
Just starin in each other s eyes
G findin it in the morning light
Am
There were bound for glory, bound for livin on the edge D
they were bound for each other, G
like two blankets laying on a bed
Am
She had a new way of livin, new way of lookin at life
D
he had an 84 International and two kids
C G
he left back home with his wife