

Bound For Glory

Neil Young

(intro strummin) F

Out on the Trans-Canada highway

Bb

there was a girl hitchhikin with a dog

C

fireflies buzzin round her head

F

like candles in a fog

He was three miles down the road

Bb

tryin to stay up but he knew that he couldn t

C

she was looking for a ride through the night

F

but out there who wouldn t

Gm

There were bound for glory, bound for livin on the edge

C

they were bound for each other

F

like two comets headin for a bed

Gm

She had a new way of livin, new way of lookin at life

C

he had an 84 International and two kids

Bb

he left back home with his wife

(waylon sings-same chords)

He was tired of writing letters to himself and living in the dark

She was open to suggestions

and some say she had a broken heart

He had everything he wanted

till it all turned out to be a job

One fallen asleep trucker

and a girl hitchhikin with a dog

(same as previous chorus)

There were bound for glory, bound for livin on the edge

they were bound for each other,

like two comets headin for a bed

She had a new way of livin, new way of lookin at life

he had an 84 International and two kids
he left back home with his wife

(Go up a full step to G)

G
Out on the Trans-Canada highway
the sun cam climbin up the cab C
by the time it hit the window D
they were waking up from what little sleep they had G
When that heat hit the blankets
They were looking for love at second sight C
Just starin in each other s eyes D findin it in the morning light G
There were bound for glory, bound for livin on the edge Am they were bound for each other, D
like two blankets laying on a bed G
She had a new way of livin, new way of lookin at life Am he had an 84 International and two kids D
he left back home with his wife C G
